

GENERAL SECRETARY

Association of Secondary Teachers, Ireland

ASTI, the Trade Union representing 18,000 second level teachers in Ireland, is seeking to appoint a General Secretary. The person appointed will have the leadership skills necessary to build on the Association's achievements to date in serving teachers and promoting education.

ASTI invites applications from suitably qualified persons.

The successful candidate will demonstrate:

- Comprehensive experience of negotiations and representation
- In-depth knowledge/experience of the education system and of teaching
- Highly developed judgement, leadership and communication skills
- Commitment to trade union principles and social solidarity
- A track record of achieving strategic objectives
- Strong people management and motivational skills
- Research, analysis and policy development skills
- A commitment and ability to promote the teaching profession

A remuneration package commensurate with the senior nature of the position will apply. The full terms and conditions of employment will be contained in a Contract of Employment to be agreed with the successful candidate.

If you believe that you are suitably qualified for this senior position you should submit a full C.V. and a covering letter in which you set out in no more than 300 words, your vision for the ASTI and the strategies necessary to give practical effect to that vision, to:

Kevin Brophy
Brophy Solicitors
38-40 Parliament Street
Dublin 2

Further information in relation to the duties and requirements of this post is available on the ASTI website – www.asti.ie

Closing date for applications is Monday 17th August, 2015

ASTI is an equal opportunities employer.

Canvassing will disqualify.